

CC07 St Day Parish Church

The Captain's Churches & Chapels

Dedicated to St Dei, the Breton saint from France.

St Day was the centre for the richest and perhaps most famous copper mining district in the world from the 16th century up to the 1830s.

The current church dates from the 13th century, but there has been a chapel on the site from even earlier, and was a place of pilgrimage.

TN09
The Pilgrim's
Way

