

CF05 Cornish Fairings

Old Man Crudge's Cornish Fayre

Cornish Fairings are a traditional ginger biscuit commonly found in Cornwall. "Fairing" was originally a term for an edible treat sold at fairs around the country.

In 1886, John Furniss started selling them at his tea room in Truro. They were so popular that he started selling them via mail-order.

FPO2

Furniss Foods

