

EA02 Jamie Oliver's Fifteen, Watergate Bay
 Captain Joe's Eating Out

The website contains details of the location and menu. For more info click the link on the left.

Jamie employs local youths and teaches them how to cook. The result is a great restaurant overlooking Watergate Bay.

The breakfast at Fifteen is the best in West Cornwall. As well as the local fayre you would expect, the slow roasted tomatoes are brill. Try the waffles too!
