

EA05 Lifton Strawberry Fields Farm Shop

Captain Joe's Eating Out

The website contains details of the location and plenty about the farm and the staff. For more info click the link to the left.

Although not actually in Cornwall, this farm shop is a great place to stop as it's minutes from the M5 at Lifton, just before Launceston.

This little farm shop has now expanded his restaurant to provide great breakfasts and Sunday lunches too.
The bread is baked on site and fantastic.
